

Calling on song for Crook Ceilidh 2016

Les
Unison Good friends, now I pray, give attention
We've called here to see you by chance,
We're musicians all, blithe and bonny
Intending to play for your dance
South Lakes is the place that we hail from Tumbling Tom is the name we do tell
There's no finer band in this county
And none call the dances so well

Harmony It's 35 years since Crook started
With odd socks of maroon and green
Each Squires led the side in their own way
And are oft in the bar to be seen
With day jobs too numerous to mention
They're lively, good looking and lish
So let's have a fine celebration
Here's our Anniversary wish

Unison Been a hundred or more lively dancers
At the many events they take part in
Whether Ireland, or France, or Old England
They've not managed yet to lose Martyn

Harmony With instruments many and varied
The music is rhythmic and driven
At Festivals they've been a favourite
And many the compliments given

Harmony So here's to the next 35 years
Whatever that future may bring
Be it Cotswold, or Rapper or Border
Or wassailing out with the King
We'll dance and we'll sing all together
Make merry with wine and good beer
So let us get on with the party
Here's wishing a Happy New Year
